SKI JAPAN

Introducing our favourite ski resorts in Japan!

Central Japan

NAEBA

An oft-overlooked ski region, the Naeba and Kagura ski regions are connected by Japan's longest gondola. This region has one of the largest hotels in Japan with over 1,000 rooms and takes less than 2 hours to reach from Tokyo Station. Naeba is one of the best ski resorts for families, with many family rooms and activities on offer, including snow tubing, snow trains, snowmobiles and kids clubs!

NAEBA PRINCE HOTEL

The Naeba Prince Hotel is a one-stop shop for everything you need on your next family ski holiday including restaurants, shops and hot springs. There are multiple room options for groups of all sizes and budgets.

FROM $205 per person twin share

SHIGA KOGEN

An area deserving more recognition, Shiga Kogen boasts the largest ski area in Japan. It is a national park area, with minimal development; perhaps not the most exciting for those seeking to party, but appealing to families and beginners, with wide open slopes and not too many people.

SHIGA KOGEN PRINCE HOTEL EAST WING

The Prince Hotel at Shiga Kogen has an onsite food court with affordable dining, local buses down to the main Ichinose township, and grants ski-in/ski-out access to the slopes. Enquire about possible early bird stay-pay deals!

FROM $235 per person twin share, with daily breakfast

HAKUBA

The Nagano region was home to the 1998 Winter Olympics, and the Hakuba area is the most well-developed township in the area. With runs catering to all ski levels and all manner of après ski, Hakuba is easily the most popular ski resort in Japan for Australians seeking a powder experience combined with pre and post ski sightseeing in mainland Japan. It is located approximately 4 hours from Tokyo via the shinkansen and bus.

MOMINOKI HOTEL

Located at the base of the mountain and only 3 mins on foot from the Kokusai Lift, Mominoki Hotel is one of the premier hotels in Hakuba. Picture yourself lounging by the open fireplace in the lobby after a big day in the mountains. Mominoki offers its guests a high standard of accommodation, with spacious, comfortable rooms that cater towards those who want just a little more than a room to relax in. Most of the rooms enjoy views of the surrounding mountains and alpine vistas.

FROM $200 per person twin share, with daily breakfast

NOZAWA ONSEN

Another resort in the Nagano region, Nozawa is a sightseeing destination all year round, as it's also a traditional hot spring town. The number of rooms at Nozawa Onsen are in exceedingly short supply, making them a hot commodity for those seeking to combine a traditional experience with their ski holiday.
